IRELAND.

Dublin, November 22. On Wedneſday laſt the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, attended the Lord Lieutenant with the following Addreſs, which had been agreed to Nem. Con. viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty, the humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

'Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

'We cannot find Terms ſtrong enough to expreſs our 'Gratitude to your Majeſty, for your moſt gracious and 'kind Acceptance of the Aſſurances your faithful Com'mons have moſt heartily given, of their chearful and 'ready Aſſiſtance, againſt all Attempts, which the Ene'mies of the Publick may make, to diſturb the Happi'neſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious 'Government.

'Your Majeſty's expoſing your ſacred Perſon, at this 'critical Juncture, for the Preſervation of the Liberties 'of theſe Countries, and of Europe in general, is the 'ſtrongeſt Proof of your Majeſty's Paternal Attention to 'the Good of your People; and muſt demonſtrate to all 'your faithful Subjects, what Bleſſings they enjoy un'der a Prince who makes the Good of Mankind his 'Care.

'The freſh and pleaſing Inſtance your Majeſty has juſt 'now given us, of your Confidence in our Fidelity, and 'Zeal to your illuſtrious Houſe, demands our moſt ſin'cere and grateful Acknowledgments. And we beg 'Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, That we ſhall make it 'our conſtant Endeavour, to deſerve the Continuance of 'your Royal Favour and Protection.'

LONDON.

It is certain that a ſtrong Party has been formed in Ruſſia againſt the Marquis de la Chetardie, inſomuch, that it is very doubtful, whether it will be found practicable to advance him unto the Poſt of a Miniſter in that Empire, as is ſaid to have been intended.

This Great Man was extremely mortified at the Spirit with which the Prince of Sweden anſwered his Demand, in Point of Ceremonial; and at his being obliged to ſubmit, and to go and pay his Compliments, as other Foreign Miniſters do.

Some private Letters from the Hague pretend, that the King of pruſſia has actually ordered his Miniſter at the Court of Vienna to declare to her Hungarian Majeſty, That he cannot poſſibly ſee the Head of the Empire reduced to live on a Subſidy from a Foreign Court, and deprived of his Hereditary Dominions; and therefore he hoped, her Majeſty would reſolve to reſtore them upon moderate Conditions.

The Artillery and grand Magazine of Budwais, in Bohemia, have been tranſferred, by the Queen of Hungary's Orders, into Moravia; in order to put that Country in'o a better State of Defence.

Private Letters from Paris inform us, that the Prince of Campo Florido, Ambaſſador from his Catholick Majeſty to the moſt Chriſtian King, has declared publickly, That the Indiſpoſition of the Prince of Aſturias was neither ſo dangerous, nor at all of that Nature, as it had been repreſented in the PBblick Prints; and that his Royal Highneſs was now perfectly recovered.

M. Broglio is very much indiſpoſed; and tho' there is ſtill ſome Appearance of his having Credit at Court, yet it is believed that if M. Belleiſle ſhou'd have the Command of an Army next Year at the Requeſt of the Emperor, he will retire from Buſineſs, and paſs the Remainder of his Life at his Country Seat.

The Dutch Eaſt-India Company have ſent five Ships this Year to Batavia; the three firſt ſailed on the 27th of October from the Texel, and the other two on the 27th of laſt Month.

Yeſterday ſeveral Officers of the Scotch Regiment now in Flanders, arrived from thence to recruit for the ſaid Regiment; which, 'tis ſaid, will be fill'd by the 1ſt of March.

A few Days ſince arrived at Appledore in the Port of Barnſtable, the two Ships, belonging to Thomas Benſon, Eſquire: The Placentia, Brooks; the Grace, Hogg; the Boſton Galley, Hammett; the Gammington, Browning, from Portugal; and the New Key, Prance, from Boſton.

Yeſterday his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, attended by his Grace the Duke of Richmond, Maſter of the Horſe to his Majeſty, &c.

The ſame Day his Grace the Archbiſhop of York, the Earls of Abingdon and Uxbridge, the Lord Byron, who lately came of Age, the Lord Hervey, and the Biſhops of Worceſter and Wells, took the Oaths, and their reſpective Seats in the Houſe of Peers.

The Rev. Dr. Wilſon was Yeſterday inſtalled one of the Prebends of St. Peter's, Weſtminſter, with the uſual Formality.

Yeſterday the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the State Lottery; viz. 19,565, 2000 l. 7082, 1000 l. 15,125, 500 l. 28,717, 50,798, 65,796, 30,837, 49,607, 65,909, 77,429, 33,096, 72,545, 73,211, 100 l. each.

Yeſterday Charles Pocock was committed to Newgate by Mr. Alderman Arnold, for feloniouſly ſtealing a Silk Handkerchief, value 2 s. out of the Houſe of Edward White, of Thames Street, the Property of Mr. Athawes.

On Wedneſday Evening, between 10 and 11 o'Clock, one John Carter, being much in Liquor, was robbed of his Watch and Money by two common Women of the Town, within 60 Yards of the Watchouſe in Leadenhall-ſtreet; and tho' he called out for Help, there was no one came to his Aſſiſtance till they had made their Eſcape.

Extract of a Letter from Nevis, dated Sept. 28, 1743.

'I am heartily ſorry to acquaint you, that Mr. ——, 'has taken the Oath of Inſolvency; and I aſſure you, 'that within theſe three Months 'tis become quite a Cu'ſtom. If this Method continues to make a Progreſs '(as I am fearful it will, without a ſpeedy Law made) 'adieu all Credit and Trade here. And I am convinc'd, 'if the Merchants in England were appriz'd of it, they 'would be very cautious in their Dealings here.

'I am concern'd, when I ſay, this pernicious, unjuſt 'Way of defrauding the Fair Trader, has been counte'nanc'd by ſome Perſons here. This Law, which lay 'obſolete many Years, and was intended originally to 'prevent poor Labourers and Artificers from periſhing 'in a Jail, has, within theſe few Years, been made uſe 'of to ſerve all Purpoſes, and all Stations.'

This is to inform the Publick, That the Buſineſs of the late Mr. Benjamin Cole, Broker, will be carried on, for the Benefit of the Widow, &c. by Cotton and Lambert, at their Office againſt the Royal Exchange, Cornhill, and at Cole's Old Lottery-Office, next the Union Coffee-Houſe, Exchange-Alley: At which Offices, during the Drawing, Tickets and Shares of Tickets, Chances and Shares of Chances, warranted undrawn, will be ſold at the loweſt Prices, and all other Buſineſs as a Broker, or relating to the Lottery, tranſacted with the utmoſt Care and Fidelity, by the aboveſaid Cotton and Lambert. Ready Money for Blanks and Prizes ſo ſoon as drawn.

The Univerſal Family MEDICINE,
Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of 23 Years Succeſs with the Publick,

Is ſold by the Author's Appointment, by Mr. King, Grinſelin in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange; by Mr. Harris at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Orabourn Alley near Leiceſter Fields; and by Mr. Hildyard, Bookſeller York; at 3 s. the Bottle Retail.

Is to be taken at any Season of the Year, as it is very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Doſe of ſo gentle, that it weakens not the moſt Aged; for it is a ſafe and effectual Alterative, to be taken a leſs Doſe than where Purging is neceſſary; an Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a ſingular Property well known to the Learned, to be in ſome Cathartick Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longeſt Standing, and attended with the moſt aggravated Circumſtances (a Diſtemper ſo common to Engliſh People, that not one in a thouſand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are ſorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Diſtemper in all its Forms of appearing, from the ſlighteſt itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmoſt or laſt Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures the Diſtemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only ſure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapſes (notwithſtanding what may be ſtrenuouſly the contrary) the Truth of which is witneſſed to daily, by many Thouſands that have taken this Medicine. It ſo purifies fully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that ſcrophulous Caſes are alſo ſpeedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and briſk, many chronick Diſeases prevented, and a due State of Health ſecured.

It removes all Pain in the Stomach, helps Digeſtion, opens Obſtructions, and is peculiarly ſerviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickneſs. Tis the beſt Medicine in the World to deſtroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it ſecures away all the ropy, viſcid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is ſo well adapted to all Conſtitutions, that it is deſervedly eſteemed both in City and Country, the moſt general Family Medicine that ever was known to preſerve Health, and hinders no Buſineſs or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholeſale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to ſell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
